

DAWES IN SPEECH CALLS LA FOLLETTE MASTER DEMAGOGUE

Independent Candidate Subject of Attack by Republican Vice-Presidential Nominee at Milwaukee—Only Purpose Seen is an Attack on Constitution of United States

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 11. (AP)—Senator LaFollette, Independent candidate for president, was assailed as "the master demagogue" and the LaFollette Independent candidacy was attacked as the "quintessence of demagogism" here in Milwaukee, a LaFollette stronghold, tonight by Charles G. Dawes, Republican vice-presidential nominee.

Mr. Dawes flayed LaFollette and attacked his candidacy before an audience that filled the Milwaukee auditorium, a structure seating 9,000 people. There was no disturbance although before the meeting began there were scattered cries of "hurrah for Bob," meaning Senator LaFollette and there was an obvious nervousness among not only many of those in the audience but among some on the stage.

The relation of the LaFollette movement to the constitution was the general theme of Mr. Dawes, who declared that the candidacy of the Wisconsin senator not only represented the "quintessence of demagogism," but a demagogism "animated by the vicious purpose of undermining the constitutional foundation of the republic."

PLANS COMPLETE FOR OBSERVANCE OF DEFENSE DAY

War Department Confident Test Will be Successful

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10. (AP)—War Department officials put last touches today to the defense test plans that will culminate tomorrow in a national wide demonstration of the decentralized defense machinery set up since the National Defense act of 1920 was written.

They were confident that the exceedingly limited test which alone is possible in peace times of a system planned and intended for actual use only in the event of a grave war emergency with hostilities immediately impending will show that their conception of the problem has been correct and that basically the defense system they have worked out under the law is sound and workable.

In a formal statement today, issued on the eve of the first test of all the planning of the last four years, Secretary Weeks indicated that he found encouragement in the fact that it has been necessary, during the year in which plans for the test have been maturing, to make very few changes in the original project. He emphasized the democratic character of the system, adding that its success depended wholly upon the wholehearted cooperation of civilians everywhere with the army authorities.

A summary of reports from the nine corps area commanders showed that in the aggregate a very large number of men were expected to volunteer to fill the role of soldiers for an hour or two tomorrow in order that the test might have a visual lesson to spectators in every community which is cooperating in the scheme.

Government officials including President Coolidge, Secretary Weeks and General Pershing will play a part in the Washington City defense test program, reviewing the parade of troops and volunteers back of the white house. Their participation gives something of a national character to the capitals contribution to the day.

Both Secretary Weeks and General Pershing will talk over the radio tomorrow night, co-operation of the telephone and radio companies making it possible for 20,000,000 or more people to hear what is said.

PROMINENT ATTORNEY KILLED BY ANOTHER

DALLAS, Texas, Sept. 11. (AP)—Paul M. O'Day, 36, prominent young Dallas attorney, was shot and instantly killed as he entered a bank building today. William L. Crawford, another attorney, and son of the late Col. W. L. Crawford, was taken into custody. "He insulted by mother," was the only statement made by Crawford, according to officers. O'Day came to Dallas five years ago from Springfield, Missouri. He married Miss Jesse Patterson of Decatur, Ill. They have an 8 year old daughter.

PLAIN HONESTY IN GOVERNMENT IS DAVIS PLEA

Declares The G. O. P.
Should be Held to Strict Accounting

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 10. (A. P.)—Putting to the people of Colorado and the west "the plain question of honesty in government," John W. Davis asked them in an address here tonight to hold the Republican party "to the accounting which is its due," on its record in the administration of government. Reviewing that record in some detail particularly with reference to the leasing of the naval oil reserves and the handling of the reclamation problem the Democratic presidential candidate said he wished to keep constantly before the people of the United States the question of party government and party responsibility.

"Unless political parties can be held to strict account," he declared, "party government itself is a base imposition and a fraud." Accusing the Republican party of having broken most of the promises made to the American people four years ago, Mr. Davis laid particular emphasis on the subjects of conservation and reclamation, as those striking closest home to the people in this section.

"Four years ago the Republican party declared itself the fast friend of conservation and reclamation," he said. "What sort of a conservator it proved to be we know, also too well." Reviewing then briefly the efforts made under Presidents Roosevelt, Taft and Wilson to save from private greed and exploitation, enough of the oil deposits of the west to guarantee a reserve supply for the navy in time of war, the speaker sketched briefly the leasing of the reserves and referred specifically to the payment of $100,000 to Albert B. Fall, by Edward L. Doheny and of $25,000 by Harry F. Sinclair.

"In the Republican platform of 1924," Mr. Davis continued, "we read that the conservation policy of the nation originated with Theodore Roosevelt and that the Republican holds a privilege to build as a memorial on the foundation that he laid. Shades of the mighty dead! It will be a sorry memorial if it is adorned, when erected with a statuette of Albert B. Fall."

Turning then to reclamation, Mr. Davis said a Republican congress had failed to act on the report of the fact finding commission which showed the need, he said for a prompt adjustment of the charges made to settlers on irrigation projects.

"And if we are to judge from the platform adopted by the Republican party," he added, "nothing is apt to happen."

Calling attention that this platform declared that "new policies and methods of operation have been adopted which promise to insure the successful accomplishment of the objects sought," with reference to the reclamation of the arid and semi-arid lands, the speaker said that what these new policies and methods are and what are sought are disclosed.

Mr. Davis contrasted the Republican platform with the declaration in the Democratic platform pledging that party actively, efficiently and economically to carry on the reclamation projects and to make equitable adjustment for the mistakes the government has made.

"With this policy and this pledge," he added, "I am in hearty accord, and if I should become president I will do all in my power to insure its fulfillment promptly and in good faith."

The Democratic standard bearer declared against government operation of power plants but he said it should determine the location of the necessary demands and carry out their actual construction.

NEW YORK MAN TO COMMAND U. S. W. V.

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., Sept. 10.—Chauncey Herrick of New York City was elected commander in chief of the United States War Veterans' association today on the 12th ballot.

The convention came to a close today.

St. Petersburg, Fla., was selected for the 1925 encampment, at the meeting yesterday.

STARTS OUT FISHING, IS KILLED BY AUTO

Bloomington, Ill., Sept. 10.—Andrew Johnson, 74 years old, of Greenville, while starting out for a pleasant day of fishing, was instantly killed when he stepped in front of an automobile on the hard road near there. The occupants of the car, Carl Johnson and sister of Moline, were exonerated by the coroner's jury. Johnson is survived by two sons and four daughters.

Girls Seek "Thrills" As Highway Robbers

EDWARDSVILLE, Ill., Sept. 11. (AP)—Going to high school and living in a small town like Gillespie, Ill., furnished little "kick" for Margaret McMullen and the eighth grade was rather disinteresting for Olga Endruzzini, so the two 15-year old girls decided "to hit the road" and look for a "thrill" just like Leopold and Loeb, declared the two girls who are held here on charges of highway robbery in their cells today.

Margaret borrowed a pair of her father's overalls, stole a gun and set out in search of adventure, she said. And Margaret assumed the role of leader. Leaving their home town on foot, the two said they started with their minds full of hope for a rosy future. A motorist took them to Edwardsville.

In Edwardsville, they got their first "thrill" they said. A negro whom they held up in front of a theater furnished this "thrill."

DENIES CLAIMS THAT MINISTERS CHILDREN ALL TURN OUT WRONG

Names Many Prominent Persons to Support His Contentions

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Sept. 11. (AP)—The popular contention that children of ministers turn out unfavorably was put to rest with the evidence and argument of Bishop Hughes of Chicago in his address "The Children of the Mince" before a joint session of the Illinois and Central Illinois Methodist conferences tonight.

In the fields of science, education, religion, literature, journalism, art and architecture, ministers sons and daughters have given good account of themselves, he declared, and named many of the most noted persons of the world to support his contention.

"It is not right," he said, "that an age old lie should be allowed to continue its dangerous work." Officers elected at the concluding business of the opening day's session of the Methodist Laymen's association of the Illinois conference held here today are as follows:

President—D. L. Musselman, Quincy.

Secretary-Treasurer—A. R. Crook, Springfield.

Vice-president of Bloomington district—W. F. Engle, Bloomington.

Vice-president of Champaign district—C. W. Groves, Champaign.

Vice-president of Decatur district—Isaac W. Long, Assumption.

Vice-president of Jacksonville district—Thomas V. Hopper, Jacksonville.

Vice-president of Mattoon district—Judge H. R. Snively, Marshall.

Vice-president of Quincy district—C. W. Coughlan, Pittsfield.

Vice-president of Springfield district—H. S. Wiley, Springfield.

The next executive committee is as follows: D. L. Musselman, Quincy; A. R. Crook, Springfield; C. C. Grimmett, Palmyra; Ira R. Blackstock, Springfield; and Mrs. F. W. Wells, Pittsfield.

At a meeting of the Rural Pastors' association, Rev. J. W. Singler, a Methodist, was elected president; H. A. Cochran, vice-president and H. F. Delap, secretary-treasurer.

BOOZE HAUL MADE AT FIRPO-WILLS FIGHT

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Sept. 11. (AP)—Prohibition agents scored the first knockdown at Boyl's Thirty Acres late today as the gates for the Firpo-Wills encounter opened. Sixty men, led by R. Q. Merrick, divisional chief for New York and New Jersey seized several hundred cases of whiskey, 500 gallons of beer and made a number of arrests.

One of the seizures was a speed boat making for the Jersey shore in the vicinity of the arena. Aboard were 250 cases of whiskey which were seized. Merrick declared that the liquor was intended for sale to the fight fans in the big bowl tonight.

JENKINS MAY RUN FOR PROGRESSIVE SENATOR

CHICAGO, Sept. 11. (AP)—The LaFollette-Wheeler group will enter an independent candidate for United States Senator in Illinois it was said today by Chas. J. McGowan, chairman of the Illinois conference of Independents.

"There will be a progressive candidate for United States senator from Illinois," said Mr. McGowan. "Neither Charles S. Deneen, nor A. A. Sprague offer anything to the Progressives of Illinois."

The name of their candidate was withheld by the Progressive group but it was intimated that Newton Jenkins who ran third in the Republican primaries last spring has been chosen.

LABOR GOES ON RECORD AGAINST KLAN MOVEMENT

But One Voice Raised in Its Behalf at the Peoria Meeting

PEORIA, Ill., Sept. 11. (AP)—Only one champion of the Ku Klux Klan lifted his voice against a resolution condemning the order, and only a dozen votes were cast for it, when the State Federation of Labor here this afternoon adopted the anti-klan declaration passed by the last American Federation of Labor convention at Portland, Oregon.

E. R. Branham, a carpenter of Champaign drew shouts of opposition and criticism from all parts of the hall by his boldness.

"You are displaying the same intolerance," he said, "as the Spanish inquisition. This action will split our organization wide open. We must be more tolerant. Action against the Klan in the Democratic chances of success, and the same thing may kill our organization. There is enough room in our federation for all, and that includes klansmen as well as others."

The original resolution presented by miners of Dowell and Zeigler, asking that the federation prevent any Klan mass meetings especially in Southern Illinois, was killed by adoption of the substitute. In part this substitute was as follows:

"We feel that the attempted usurpation of power of government by the Ku Klux Klan is of paramount importance to every American. We cannot believe that any American after giving full thought to the purposes and objects sought to be attained by this organization can either join or condone such a conspiracy."

"We condemn this secret conspiracy, this hideous and sinister movement that proudly calls itself the Invisible Empire cloaking itself in masks and mummeries while it eats at the heart of our institutions." A resolution favoring a state labor party was voted down by an overwhelming majority.

The nearest thing to a contest came when recognition of soviet Russia was proposed. The vote against it was 255 to 107.

With only one contrary vote the federation instructed its officers to use every means at their command to secure discontinuance of the nefarious Taylor speed-up system in the Chicago postoffice. The one opposing vote was cast by a postoffice clerk who said this action "would militate against the fight for higher wages for postoffice employees."

Champaign was selected as the 1925 convention city over Springfield, East St. Louis and Joliet.

GOVERNOR SMALL HAS COMPLETE POWER TO PARDON BOY SLAYERS

Is Stated, However, That Matter is Not Under Consideration

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 10. (AP)—It is within the power of the governor of Illinois to pardon Richard Loeb and Nathan Leopold, Jr., convicted kidnapers and murderers of Robert Franks, Chicago boy, a statement made in the executive office of Governor Len Small said today.

"The law permits the governor to pardon prisoners and he would be legally permitted to pardon Leopold and Loeb," George D. Sutton, secretary to the governor said. Mr. Sutton was emphatic in declaring that this matter was not in any way under consideration.

A pardon would wipe away all court proceedings and charges and would restore the convicts to citizenship, it was explained. A commutation would merely shorten the sentence imposed, a power that also rests with the governor.

RAIL LABOR BOARD QUESTION UP TO COURT

Chicago, Sept. 11.—A court test to thoroughly interpret the law and right of the United States railroad labor board to compel unwilling witnesses to testify under the transportation act, is the next step, according to board officials, in the controversy over wages and rules between the western railway managers and the engine service brotherhoods. Representatives of the engineers and firemen again today refused to appear on subpoenas issued by the board.

ASKS PRESERVATION OF PRIMARY BALLOTS

Greenville, S. C., Sept. 10.—Rep. Z. F. Byrnes today asked the Greenville democratic executive committee to preserve the ballots cast in Tuesday's democratic primary in which he was a candidate for U. S. senator. He did not give any reason for the request.

LEOPOLD AND LOEB HEAVILY GUARDED ARRIVE AT JOLIET

Auto Accident Enroute Endangers Lives of Prisoners and Guards—Are Admitted at Prison With Scant Ceremony—Appear to

STATE PENITENTIARY, Joliet, Ill., Sept. 11 (AP)—Saved from death on the gallows by judicial mercy, Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb tonight had their second narrow escape in as many days when the automobile bearing them here from Chicago to expiate the death of Young Robert Franks careened off the road while going 35 miles an hour and plunged onto the unballasted tracks of the Chicago & Joliet Electric railway.

The sons of Chicago Millionaires, handcuffed to their guards, escaped death or serious injury when the big automobile jolted down the track for some fifty feet and came to a halt. The jump off the road was taken by the driver rather than risk of colliding with another machine. The accident occurred some twenty miles out of Chicago near Argo, Illinois.

Their identity cloaked in the obscurity of two prison numbers—9305 and 9306—the boys who killed for a thrill a short time after facing death two times in two days passed into oblivion thru the clanging gates of the state penitentiary.

They ended what may possibly be their last automobile ride apparently badly frightened and minus much of the nonchalance and bravado that carried them thru a stormy court hearing to save them from the noose.

The big car in which they rode, with clanging bell pulled up to the main entrance of the state penitentiary, a dozen armed guards with drawn rifles appeared from nowhere and lined the path thru which they were to pass, deputy sheriffs from other cars ran to the youths' automobile, and they were whisked into the prison without ceremony.

Before a crowd of more than a hundred newspapermen and curious persons realized what had happened the slayers were shoved thru an iron gate into the record keeper's office, Sheriff Peter M. Hofmann of Cook county handed commitment papers and statements of the case to the prison, the warden handed back a receipt, and the boys were kept moving thru another iron door and into the prison proper.

Here they were met by guards and taken to "court solitary" where in separate cells all incoming prisoners spend their first night in the penitentiary. They were stripped of all clothing and handed prison garb by Captain C. A. Birkford, and to him they said the only words that were uttered by the iron gates where they may pass the remainder of their lives.

"Well, this isn't such a bad place, after all," Loeb remarked to the captain, glancing appraisingly about the bare walls of "court solitary."

Leopold nodded but said nothing except to give an answer to a question. Loeb described the accident to Captain Birkford and then the boys were alone for their first night in the institution which they have been sentenced for life and 99 years more.

"The boys were well behaved," Warden Whitman said. "We gave them instructions what to do when they crossed the prison court yard and they both nodded respectfully. When they arrived in 'court solitary' they were told to remove their hats and given other instructions. They observed all instructions promptly and apparently with a desire to do so, and not because they were forced to obey."

Over boulevards and highways which the two youths in years past had spent many hours driving their own cars of expensive make, they were whisked away as handcuffed passengers in as powerful a car but on a mission which was to spell finis to two careers which many had looked forward to as spectacular. Turning from the alley in the rear of the jail which for weeks had served as the substitute for their former palatial homes in an exclusive and fashionable South Side residential district, the consoling Chicago at a speed which brought the cars to two wheels on many of the corner turns, finally swung into West Side Boulevards leading to the old Joliet Road.

Led by a police squad in a car thru whose curtains was thrust the barrels of four shot guns, and brought up in the rear by a car of the same description, traffic signals in the city were ignored, changing bells were moris to the curb and "red stop" was sent scurrying back onto the sidewalks.

Only two balls were made in the city proper—once when a street car and automobiles had jammed endeavoring to clear the avenue for the oncoming cars and another at a railroad crossing when the guard rails indicated the approach of a fast passenger train.

CHINESE TROOPS ASK FOR USE OF JAPAN RAILWAY

Major Engagement is Believed Imminent
in Civil War

TOKIO, Sept. 10. (AP)—The Mukden correspondent of the Tokio Asahi telegraphs that General Chang Tso-Lin, the Manchurian military leader, who has declared war against Wu Pei-Fu, the military leader of the Chinese government has lodged a request with the Japanese consul general at Mukden for permission to use the South Manchurian railway for the movement of his troops.

The request has been referred to the Japanese governor general of the Kwantung leased territory. In best informed circles in Tokio it is believed that the request will be refused.

The Asahi's correspondent reports that troops are arriving in Mukden from both Kirin to the north and Antung in the south west. The Mukden regiments are ready to move on short notice. It is expected that passenger traffic on the Peking-Mukden railway will be suspended as soon as a general movement begins.

Commerce at Changchun, an important railway junction west of Kirin, is practically suspended, according to the correspondent owing to military activity. Chang it is said, intends to accompany his troops to the front.

The Nichi Nichi's Mukden correspondent says two field artillery regiments are already enroute to Shanhaikwan on the Peking-Mukden railway near the Chihli-Manchurian border.

Shanghai, Sept. 10. (AP)—Indications that a major engagement in China's civil war is impending west of Tai Lake, about a hundred miles to the west of here were supported with receipt of advices early today that numbers of wounded were arriving in Kashing about sixty miles to the southwest on the Shanghai Hangchow railway.

The wounded, it was stated are being taken into Kashing both from Huchow, just south of Tai Lake and from Kienping, further to the northwest, a short distance from the provincial border. Both towns are in Chekiang province.

Illinois—Showers or thunderstorms Friday, cooler in west and south portions; Saturday probably fair.

A man's true wealth is the good he does in the world.—Mohammed.

One thing that looks as if Germany means business in the matter of paying reparations is the way she's cutting down government expenses. In a few months 400,000 government employees have been fired—a fourth of the total.

The tendency of most governments is to have just as many employees as the taxpayers will stand.

DESPOTISM

Peter J. Brady, an American labor official, also president of the Federation of Labor banks in New York, tells the British Trades Union Congress:
American labor is against Kaiserism, Bolshevism or any form of despotism which seeks to overthrow democratic institutions.
This is the truth, and it is well to have such a clear, strong statement of the American attitude from a labor leader. The coupling of Bolshevism with Kaiserism is logical, because the two have proved to be forms of tyranny equally dangerous to democratic institutions.

This is the great argument against Bolshevism—that while pretending to represent the common man, it has trampled down democracy. Genuine democracy not only represents a majority, but is tolerant of all classes, giving every economic and social group the representation and opportunity to which its numbers and importance entitle it.
The deadly fact about Russian Bolshevism or Sovietism is not that it is "radical," but that it has taken away this democratic representation and opportunity from so many millions of individuals, thereby denying them "the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." The Kaiser himself could not have done no worse than that.

PEDDLER OR MERCHANT

The housewife usually regards the peddler who comes to her door as a nuisance. But half the time she encourages him by the upside down process of "buying something to get rid of him." She finds it easier, in the individual instance, to buy a package of bad needles or a scant basket of berries or a rubber apron which turns out to be a second that it is to listen to a stream of talk and force herself to argue as to why she should not buy.

By itinerant salesman, is not meant the farmer who makes his annual or semi-annual pilgrimage to his regular customers with honey and apple butter, or the self-respecting agent for known magazines who lives in the community and serves a regular clientele. What is meant is the peddler from no one knows where responsible to no one knows whom, here today and gone tomorrow, selling inferior goods on the strength of an appeal to unwelcome sentiment.

In one prosperous small city often victimized by this type of person, the merchants got together and issued a statement which may well be heeded here:
"Numerous complaints are being received from housewives who report that they have lost money through purchasing merchandise from unknown house to house peddlers. Professional swindlers who go from city to city, have victimized thousands of housewives. Merchandise is misrepresented and, if delivered, is often inferior to samples shown. Advance payments are sometimes collected the peddler vanishes and the merchandise is never received. Investigate before you buy or invest.
"Your responsible local merchants support all civic and public enterprises, pay taxes for the city's development and support, and give employment to thousands of home town people. You can always see them personally for the adjustment of any mistakes.
"You are safe in buying from responsible local stores."

MORGAN DEMOCRATS TO ATTEND STATE FAIR

Jacksonville is expected to be well represented by adherents of the Democratic party at the Illinois State Fair at Springfield, on Wednesday, Sept. 17. Chairman W. A. Masters of the Morgan County Central Committee and Mrs. H. W. English, state committee woman are urging Democrats to attend the fair on this day.
An informal reception will be given for Democratic women at 9:30 o'clock in the morning at the St. Nicholas hotel in Springfield where they will be welcomed and introduced to the candidates.
The reports of district superintendents—seven of them—were made the second day and much time was gained for items of historical interest.
Rev. A. S. Chapman of Jacksonville presented to the presiding officer, a gavel made from one of the original buildings on the homestead of Peter Cartwright, near Pleasant Plains, Sangamon county, in the year 1827.
Charges of unministerial conduct were preferred against Rev. S. Townsend Weaver of Tower Hill, through his district superintendent, Rev. A. M. Wells of Decatur. A preliminary committee had examined into the charges and unanimously referred the case to the annual conference for action. The understanding is that it has to do with financial obligations. Mr. Weaver is a brilliant speaker, having come to Illinois conference from Iowa four years ago or so and was pastor at Versailles then at Potomac and last year assigned to Tower Hill.
Joint sessions of the Illinois and Central Illinois conferences require a careful study of the program in order not to get mixed up with the various places and time of the different events. The Illinois Wesleyan gymnasium is a most convenient meeting place for the larger gatherings, two today there was a session of the Women's Foreign Missionary meetings of the conference in Normal at 2 o'clock addressed by that remarkable Chinese woman physician, Dr. Ida Kahn. But at 1:30 Dr. Dan Brummitt of Chicago, editor of the North-western Christian Advocate conducted a forum of Church Publicity at First church, Bloomington. The mingling of the men and women of the two conferences has been of an example of what might be done if the two conferences were united.

As usual, the book room, is the center of attraction, and the various appointments of the First Church, Bloomington, post office, rest room—for men and for women—writing rooms are being taken advantage of at intervals between sessions. Dr. F. Walden of Urbana who in his young manhood set type side by side with Mark Twain in Hannibal, having now reached his 92nd year of age, sent a large number of books from his library, for distribution among the preachers. Rev. W. H. McGhee of Cerro Gordo, is making sale of his more modern books at 50 per cent discount. He will be joined soon at Cerro Gordo by Rev. A. N. Simmons of Titidian who retires from the active ministry at this session.

The death of Mrs. A. P. Stover of Delavan and Mrs. W. M. Poe of Homer—both well known in Jacksonville was announced yesterday. The rain and consequent lowering of temperature was somewhat an invigorating element in the conference sessions. The big parade of the state meeting of the Ku Klux Klan—a side issue on Wednesday evening. There are said to be 5,000 members in McLean county and 3,000 in Champagne county. Little interest and less comment is made by the conference members concerning the hooded folk. The presidential year is usually a time for action question respecting the state of the county. Law enforcement, Democracy, etc.

Progress is being made in assignments and frequent conferences are noticed between preachers concerning exchanges and conditions of the church or circuit which has been suggested as a possible place of transfer. It is understood that but few changes are expected in the leading charges, or districts except Mattoon and Bloomington districts. Dr. J. C. Note is not eligible for district superintendency, on account of the six years rule of the last general conference.

Cecil Daly of New Orleans, La., is visiting his parents and other relatives at Bethel.
John Anderson assisted by Roy Brockhouse and Roy Dalton spent three days this week at the Calloway fruit farm sawing wood.
Miss Ruth Joy French visited Mrs. Louise Anderson, Tuesday.
John Onken is a business visitor in St. Louis this week.
Born to Mr. and Mrs. Jay Cooper, Wednesday, September 10th a daughter.
Arthur Perbix returned from Canton Thursday evening where he went to claim the sedan from his garage several weeks ago. The car had been sold but was recovered in good shape and Mr. Perbix drove home in it Thursday.
Miss Beatrice Teague of the Woman's College faculty who returned recently from a summer in Europe is the guest of Miss Amy Onken.
The Ladies Aid society of the M. P. church held their regular meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Gustav Onken with Mrs. James Meedy and Miss Amy Moody as hostesses. The roll call was "Household Hints." This was the first meeting after the summer vacation and several matters of business received attention at the business session. Part of the afternoon was spent sewing. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.
The Pastoral Helpers of the Christian church held their September meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Robert Clark with Mrs. Charles Nergenh as assistant hostess. A picnic supper was served following the regular program.

Mr. and Mrs. Fen Cully, of northwest of the city, announce the birth of a daughter, Marjorie Aileen, their second child, on September 4.
Miss Elizabeth Sebran, R. N., of Table Grove, Ill., is among the delegates in the city attending the convention of the Disciples of Christ.

A HOUSE IN THE AIR

BY ALBERT APPLE

A home on wheels was built by Will A. Harris, Texas educator. He constructed it on a motor truck. Painted gray, this traveling house of two rooms, is 18 feet long. In eight weeks Harris and his wife and young daughter traveled almost 4,000 miles this summer.

You've seen such homes on wheels. They are vivid illustrations of how the auto has lessened a generation virtually placed the entire United States at the door of the car owner.

Distance, which was like jail bars, has been conquered by the auto. A man of very moderate means can get into his flivver and take a vacation trip such as was available only to the extremely rich not so many years ago.

The auto has given us a new form of liberty—releasing us from being confined to very small sections of the earth's surface.

With the invention of the auto, Americans have become a nation of rovers. Nearly every one can gratify the wanderlust instinct that lurks in all human blood.

Back in Spanish-American War days, a man who took a trip of a few thousand miles was the talk of the town for years. Now he comes back, few have noticed his absence; they merely lift their eyebrows politely when he recounts the marvels of his trip.

Travel used to be almost exclusively available only to the rich. Now every one can travel, "see the country."

The next step in human liberation will be popularization of the flying machine. Wandering airplane houses will come, just as surely as we now have traveling homes on motor trucks.

It may seem a wild dream, but that's merely because people are afraid of planes. This fear will disappear when flying becomes primarily a useful business instead of a sport—when the aviator's craze for speed and long distance gives way to concentration on how to make planes safe, fool-proof and cheap.
Flying homes would solve the rent problem—if government provided free parking space. You may live to see the day when giant corporations will be fighting for a monopoly on desirable airplane parking grounds.

Love

A Michigan farmer pretended to be insane, so he could join his wife who already had been committed to the asylum. He'd have won his wish if the judge had not noticed a gleam of joy in his eyes when the farmer's commitment papers had been made out.

Love in extreme cases resembles the law of gravity or the force that pulls a needle to a magnet. It is one of the very few psychic or spiritual forces that exists in all people.

Maybe some heartless scientist of the future will learn how to neutralize love—enable its victim to forget its lure—as we now can demagnetize metal.

Eunished

The Michigan farmer who feigned insanity to join his beloved wife in the asylum acted quite as sensibly as a good many other people when they're in love.

Cupid has a wonderful sense of humor. You observe this when a disfigured man's love letters are read in some breach of promise cases.

Unhappily, the victims get the laughs and blame that properly belong to the emotion that temporarily wrests control from them. No one is entirely sane when in love.

Bridge

London Bridge is really falling down—too heavy a traffic strain. One of the piers is sinking. It'll be repaired.

This famous bridge was originally built 748 years ago. Can you imagine any modern bridge lasting that long? It's the same with roads. Highways paved by the Romans 2,000 years ago, today have stretches as good as new. Our generation builds for the moment. In the Good Roads movement, why not more attention to endurance and less on mileage?

DENEEN COMING
NEXT WEDNESDAYRepublican Candidate for Senatorship
Making Tour of State—Declares Party Stands on Record and Is Ready to Give Accounting

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—Former Governor Charles S. Deneen, Republican candidate for United States senator, will begin the second week of his down-state campaign at Beardstown, Cass county, at 9:30 o'clock Monday morning, September 15, and will wind it up at Pittsfield, Pike county, on Saturday afternoon, September 20th. Between these two meetings he will cover most of the central part of the state, travel 600 miles, campaign thru 21 counties, make more than that number of speeches and spend Thursday (Governor's Day) at the State Fair at Springfield, besides. It will be strenuous campaigning, but Governor Deneen is standing up well under the hard work and feels entirely equal to the route made for him. He will visit Jacksonville Wednesday, September 17th. The schedule of the principal meetings for next week will be as follows:

Monday, Sept. 15—Leave Springfield for Beardstown at 8:30 o'clock a. m.; Beardstown speech 9:30 a. m.; Rushville 11 a. m.; Mt. Sterling, 2:30 p. m.; Camp Point, 4:30 p. m.; Quincy, 8 p. m.

Tuesday, Sept. 16th—Carthage, 10 a. m.; Macomb, 1 p. m.; Canton, 4 p. m.; Peoria, 8 p. m.

Wednesday, Sept. 17—Eureka, 9 a. m.; Pekin, 11:30 a. m.; Mason City, 3 p. m.; Petersburg, 5 p. m.; Jacksonville, 8 p. m.

Thursday, Sept. 18—Spend the day at the State Fair, Springfield; evening at Leland Hotel.

Friday, Sept. 19—Carlinville, 10 a. m.; Hillsboro, 1 p. m.; Greenville, 3:30 p. m.; Alton, 8 p. m.

Saturday, Sept. 20—Jerseyville, 9:30 a. m.; Carlinville, 10 a. m.; Winchester, 3 p. m.; Pittsfield, 4:30 p. m. (From Pittsfield the Governor will drive to Springfield and from then return to Chicago to spend Sunday).

Successful Week
The first week of Governor Deneen's campaign was entirely successful. It was begun upon short notice, but the local Republican organizations were alert and active in all the counties visited. Everywhere, bad weather or good, there were excellent audiences, and his speeches have aroused much enthusiasm. The Governor's speech at Benton, Wednesday night was typical of those he is making thru the state, in which he said:

"The Republican party submits to the people in this campaign an account of its stewardship during the past three and one-half years. When I came into power on March 4, 1921, these conditions confronted the country:

"We were still at war technically with the Central Powers. Five millions of men and women were out of employment. The government departments in Washington and thruout the country were filled with needless employees. Prices for farm products had declined to the pre-war level. Prices for manufactured articles had not been reduced. The cost of living was high. The opportunities for employment were greatly curtailed and the value of the dollar had greatly decreased in its purchasing power.

"The Republican party negotiated with the Central Powers treaties of peace which have met with general approval.

Many Things Accomplished

"President Harding called the conference on the limitations of armament and the questions arising in the Far East, which resulted in the four-power treaty between the United States, Great Britain, France and Japan, established peace in the Pacific Ocean and stopped the mad race for naval supremacy.

"An agreement was made with Great Britain which fixed the British war debt to the United States and provided for its liquidation. Thirty-five per cent of the war debts due the United States from European nations are in liquidation.

"Our difficulties with Mexico have been adjusted and friendly relations have been restored.

"An outstanding triumph of the influence of America in world affairs has been witnessed recently. I refer to the success of the reparations commission and the Dawes report. The settlement of reparations was removed from political considerations and was effected on business principles.

"In domestic affairs, the Republican administration has reduced taxation by $1,250,000,000 per annum. It has reduced the public debt $2,234,000,000 and has installed the budget system. It has decreased public expenditures $1,600,000,000 per annum and refunded $7,500,000,000 of public obligations without disturbance of credit or industry. More than one hundred thousand needless government employees have been discharged.

"In the matter of employment the Republican party enacted the tariff law which restored at once the activities of business and gave employment to 5,000,000 idle people. The tariff prevented the dumping of the products of cheap labor abroad upon our markets and prevented unfair competition between the cheap lands and the cheap labor of other countries with our farmers.

Agriculture Improves
"The Republican party found agriculture in a wretched condition. We had great crops and a great surplus and we were exporting to Europe more tonnage than we had done in the history of our country, except during the war. But the prices were too low and did not reach the cost of production. Farmers were quitting the farms. Mortgages were being foreclosed and distress prevailed generally and particularly in the northwest. The Republican party, thru the revival of the War Finance Corporation, enabled the treasury to loan over $300,000,000 to the farmers, establishing new intermediate credit banks, increased the capital of the federal farm loan system, enacted a co-operative marketing act and the grain future and packer control act. It gave direct representation to agriculture on the Federal Reserve Board and thru the Federal Trade Commission. Thru various laws credit facilities were extended to the farmer equal to those enjoyed by the manufacturer or the merchant. The farmer no longer complains about the lack of credit but about low prices.

"The Republican party has aided the farmer by lowering taxes, lowering freight rates, establishing better marketing thru co-operative efforts and furnishing information which will lead to the greater diversification of farm products. It also has promised him in its platform to extend financial assistance to the farmer thru the period of transition in the diversification of his crops.

"The Republican party has been a friend to the farmer. It has built up his home markets. It has protected him from unfair competition and its past record is the best assurance of its future action."

Miss Verne Mulligan, assistant to Dr. W. H. Weirich, expect to leave Saturday morning for St. Paul, Minn., to attend the national convention of the American Legion and auxiliary.

NEW LAMP BURNS
94% AIR

Beats Electric or Gas

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94% air and 6% common kerosene (coal oil).

The inventor J. L. Johnson, 609 W. Lake St., Chicago, Ill., is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.

LEOPOLD AND LOEB
HEAVILY GUARDED
ARRIVE AT JOLIET

In a suburb the car which later nearly spelled death for the boys developed brake trouble, a stop was made, but shortly was driven on. The same experience occurred a few miles farther. The brakes were cooled with water and the convoy continued. A flat tire later caused another stop.

The party was traveling fifty miles an hour at some stages of the trip and scarcely two miles back from where the near accident happened, the speedometer registered 52 miles.

From that point on the speed was considerably reduced. Sheriff Hofmann, in whose custody the boys were transported, assuming the lead and setting a pace between 20 and 25 miles.

The first concern of everyone when the Leopold-Loeb car was finally halted directly in the center of the tracks was to determine what injury might have been done. Sheriff Hofmann, who had given orders that under no circumstance were the boys to talk during their ride to prison, was forced to break that order himself to learn their condition.

Boys Silent

When the repeated shouts of newspapermen failed to bring a response, or even the opening of the door to the car which was curbed in darkness, the sheriff slung his shotgun to the other shoulder opened the door and said:

"Well Leopold, how are you, what do you think of this?" At the same time the same question was put by several others.

Leopold did not answer any of them. Thru the open door he could be seen to squirm and laugh rather earnestly.

"How about you Dick?" the latter was asked when it appeared Leopold was not going to answer. He waited a moment before he replied in a toneless voice, "I cannot say anything."

The car contained seven persons, the two boys, four deputy sheriffs and the driver. It was impossible to move the car from its rutted position between the ties on its own power and every available hand aided while the car's own power finally moved it forward. A few more bumps and it was back into the road, apparently none the worse for its byplay. Each prisoner remained in the car during the maneuvering.

In the meantime both sides of the highway were lined with motor cars despite the continued urging of the deputy sheriffs to keep moving.

"Is this the Leopold-Loeb party?" was the inquiry from every car that passed.

The procession was not interrupted until almost in Joliet, when a screeching of brakes suddenly brought every car to a near stop. It was later learned that to escape running over a wandering puppy, Sheriff Hofmann had almost halted the convoy.

The streets entering Joliet were lined with people, aware long in advance of the impending arrival of the boys.

"Hi, Leopold," "Hi, Dickie," were the greetings which came from a number of small boys as the cars travelled along.

The entrance of the boys into prison had been carefully planned. The trip from Chicago consumed about two hours and it was nearly eight o'clock Central Time when the procession of five cars comprising the party swung into the prison yard. As the bell clanged for right of way, the first car containing the youths drew up to the entrance while guards with drawn rifles hurried out and before the car was stopped deputy sheriffs from following cars had surrounded the automobile in which the boys rode.

"All right boys," shouted a deputy, opening the car door and reaching for one of the slayers. They were hauled forth without ceremony and amid cries of "back everybody," the guards closed in behind them and the boys were shoved at the apex of the flying wedge straight thru the main entrance of the administration building for a distance of fifty feet to an iron gate guarding the record keeper's office. The gate opened, the boys were shoved thru, almost at the point of the guards' rifles and they were in the keeping of the prison.

Only a handful of Joliet's townspeople were at the penitentiary to witness the arrival of probably the most celebrated occupants of the old gray stone prison. But an army of newspapermen and photographers were on hand. The cameramen had little chance to "shoot" anything except the crowd as the boys were thru and the reporters had to be satisfied with the "Little Dickie" and "Babe" said to others.

Thru a combination of circumstances, the introduction of Loeb and Leopold to prison life will vary slightly from that of the ordinary prisoner. They arrived here late and will not have the usual photographing, identification measurements, bath, haircut, shave and other first day routine to contend with until later.

Tomorrow there will be special exercises at the prison in observance of Defense Day and all prisoners, including Leopold and Loeb will attend, Saturday morning.

Such doctrine could not be classed as reactionary, Mr. Dawes said, adding that all good citizens should condemn the reactionary as usually pictured—"one who stands against honest progress in government and in favor of some status quo from which he is supposed to derive an unfair individual benefit."

BOY SLAYERS SPEND TIME PLAYING CARDS BEFORE THEIR START

Spectators Crowd to Obtain
Last View as Party
Leaves

CHICAGO, Sept. 11. (AP)—Nathan Leopold Jr., and Richard Loeb were started on their way to Joliet penitentiary at 6:57 o'clock tonight.

The two youthful murderers of Bobby Franks, both nattily dressed, were bundled into one of the three waiting automobiles and whisked away on the forty-mile trip which will take them to the prison. In the same car were five armed deputy sheriffs.

Heading the procession was Sheriff Peter M. Hoffman, with a half dozen other deputies in another closed car. The deputies were armed with rifles and shotguns.

The third automobile contained newspapermen.

Leopold and Loeb passed thru the lines of waiting newspapermen, smiling, but silent. Neither would talk except to mumble a good bye. As they entered the car flashlights boomed and both boys were visibly startled.

Both boys played cards with their guards until a few minutes before it was time to leave. The commitment papers ordering them removed to the penitentiary had been received at 6:30 o'clock. A moment later Leopold arose and dressed. He donned a green summer suit, a brown felt hat, white shirt and bow tie.

Loeb put on a grey light weight suit, the rest of his attire being like that of his companion.

Just before they were to leave the boys were handcuffed to two deputy sheriffs in whose direct charge they were to be until delivered to the warden at Joliet. No one in the party spoke as the pair were taken down into the jail yard where the automobiles were waiting. As they appeared hundreds of persons gathered in windows and on roofs in the vicinity craned their necks to get a last glimpse of the murderers.

The forty mile journey was expected to be made in a little more than an hour. The route which was to be taken was not revealed to anyone in the party and the chauffeur of the first car moved on at the direction of Sheriff Hoffman. As they drew out of the yard Loeb and Leopold drew farewell calls from scores of the inmates of the jail.

PRESIDENT CONSIDERS FARM COMMISSIONS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10. (AP)—A light calendar permitted President Coolidge to devote a good deal of time today to study of the tariff commission report on the sugar duty and consideration of the personnel of the commission he proposes to appoint to investigate agriculture.

He was urged by John H. Kirby, president of the Southern tariff association not to order a reduction in the sugar duty, which it is understood a majority of the commission has recommended. Mr. Kirby said the president indicated the sugar tariff question as presented to him by the commission carried many complications and he was going over the report very carefully.

Likewise selection of personnel of the agriculture commission is being given much thought by Mr. Coolidge. He has drafted the program for the study he proposes. ## ON TWO OCCASIONS TANLAC BROUGHT RELIEF

J. N. Johnson Says Tanlac
Restored Health, Strength and Energy—Gained 28
Pounds on Treatment.

"It has built me up twenty-eight pounds in weight and brought me the best health of my life," is the way J. N. Johnson, 2855 Warren Ave., Chicago, sums up the benefits he has derived from the use of Tanlac.

"I first took Tanlac two years ago and it did me so much good that I always kept it in mind. So, during the past summer I found it necessary to test the powers of Tanlac again. I could not sleep and my stomach was in such a bad fix that food would almost kill me. I got down to only ninety pounds and was too run-down and weak for anything.

"Well, I thought Tanlac great the first time I took it, but now I consider it wonderful. It has brought my appetite, digestion and nerves up to the highest mark, giving me health, strength and energy that makes life and work a pleasure."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 Million bottles sold.

CHICAGO, Sept. 11.—The Midwest will be virtually unanimous tomorrow in its National Defense Day demonstrations. Hundreds of thousands of national guardsmen are to pass in review, reserve officers of the regular army will parade and civilians in almost every city, town and village in the central section of the country have planned huge patriotic rallies.

Public speaking will form a large part of the programs, especially in the northwest where the farmers, now busy with threshing will lay down their tools momentarily to listen to these addresses either in person or over the radio.

More men of military age will be on parade Friday in the state of Missouri than ever before in the state's history according to Adjutant General William A. Rupp.

In Nebraska Governor Bryan has asked that the citizens observe the day as they see fit and has ordered the national guard to be assembled in all sections of the state in their own localities.

Chicago's program is to start with an address on the air by Major General Harry C. Hale, commanding the sixth corps area, early in the morning.

A civilian army 10,000 strong is to march thru the downtown section in the afternoon and in the evening a monster demonstration has been planned for Grant Park on the lake front.

Menus for a Family

Breakfast—Baked apples, oatmeal with thin cream, steamed spinach with poached egg on toast, corn meal pop-overs, butter honey, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Stuffed baked cucumbers, whole wheat bread, butter, milk, oatmeal cookies, sliced peaches, tea.

Dinner—Roast chicken, mashed potatoes, candied sweet potatoes, stewed raisins, cold slaw, orange jelly, whipped cream, cup cakes, milk, corn bread for "family," whole wheat bread, butter, coffee.

The child who carries his lunchbox to school can be served his vegetable for breakfast. Just because it isn't often "done" is no reason it can't be. Vegetables, particularly spinach and the "leafy" vegetables, are rich in vitamins. The whole family need plenty of vegetables, so the wise mother serves them when she can.

Steamed Spinach on Toast
Wash spinach well thru many waters in the evening. Wrap up in a soft cloth and put in the ice-box to keep crisp and fresh. In the morning wash in cold water, shake slightly and cook in a deep, tightly covered stewpan. It will take tender spinach about 20 minutes to cook. Drain, season slightly with salt, generously with butter, and chop. Save the juice that drains from the spinach. Dip toasted whole wheat bread in the spinach liquor and arrange on a hot platter. Cover with chopped spinach and drop a poached egg on each piece of toast.

Two pounds of spinach should serve four persons.

Stuffed Baked Cucumbers
Four cucumbers, 1 cup minced cold broiled lamb, 1 cup cold boiled rice, 1 small onion, 1-2 teaspoon each of thyme, summer savory, sweet marjoram and nutmeg, 1 cup cream sauce.

The cucumbers should be five or six inches long. Pare, cut off stem end and scoop out pulp with a spoon. Mince onion and whatever cucumber pulp you can save free from seeds. Combine rice, lamb and seasonings with cucumbers with mixture. Fasten ends to cucumbers with toothpicks. Arrange in a deep baking dish, half cover with boiling salted water and bake half an hour in a moderate oven. Baste every ten minutes.

The stuffing may form part of the 4-year-old's luncheon. Bread and warm milk, oatmeal cookies and a perfectly ripe, fresh peach are planned for his luncheon. The peach should be rubbed thru a puree strainer and slightly sweetened for a child who does not thoroughly masticate his food.

The finely cut white meat of chicken, mashed potato, stewed celery, jelly, whole wheat bread and butter, cup cake and milk, are planned to satisfy children under school age.

Jacksonville Kiwanians expressed themselves as exceptionally well pleased with the showing of the club at the Illinois Eastern Iowa convention. The next week's luncheon will have on its program, Dr. C. H. Rammelkamp, who will address the members on the condition of the country previous to the adoption of the Constitution of the United States.

LIONS HEAR TWO INTERESTING TALKS

Dr. H. H. Peters Speaks to Club on "Togetherness"—Kentucky Minister Speaks.

Dr. H. H. Peters, pastor of the First Christian church of Bloomington was the principal speaker at the Lions luncheon at the Dunlap hotel held last night. Dr. E. D. Canatney of the program committee introduced the speaker and the meeting was presided over by H. K. Snyder.

Dr. Peters interested his audience with a talk on "Togetherness." He said the strength of collective organizations naturally is immensely greater than that of individuals. He urged that the individual forget himself and join a group.

Dr. E. L. Powell of Louisville, Kentucky who is a member of the Lion club of that city was the next speaker and he spoke very interestingly on Lionism. Taking the letters of the word "Lion" he told the Jacksonville clubmen the meaning of each letter as the Louisville club interpreted it.

Harry Walker of this city was also present and spoke on the Boy Scout movement of the city. Guests at the luncheon were Dr. Hemery of Paris, Ill., and Dr. M. L. Pontius of this city.

PONTIUS NOW HEADS DISCIPLES OF STATE

Local Pastor is Chosen President of Illinois Convention—Pass Resolution Against Race Track Gambling.

Rev. M. L. Pontius, pastor of Central Christian church, was chosen yesterday morning as the president of the Illinois Convention of Disciples of Christ, which closed its 74th annual session here last night. Rev. Pontius succeeds Rev. John I. Gunn of Gibson City, who has presided over the convention just past.

Mrs. J. T. Eliff of Pekin was elected vice-president, and Rev. E. C. Beach of Bloomington was re-elected secretary and treasurer.

The convention occupied the morning session in winding up the business and passing on reports of the various committees. Some discussion arose over a resolution by which the president was instructed to appoint a committee of three to co-operate with committees from other denominations in a fight to prevent the legalizing of racetrack gambling in Illinois. Inquiry was made as to the necessity for such a committee and Dr. Quayle of Chicago, who is connected with the Lake county Law and Order League, was instructed to explain matters.

He stated that at the last session of the legislature, several well known Chicago rich men, headed by prominent lawyers, came to Springfield to present a bill that would permit in Illinois the same sort of gambling which goes on in Kentucky. This bill asks the repeal of the law which prohibits races and other public amusements to be carried on in the vicinity of a church while religious services are in progress. Powerful interests are backing this bill. Dr. Quayle told the convention. It is believed that the bill will pass the next session of the legislature. Two ex-governors of Kentucky are planning to come to Springfield to speak in favor of the bill. At the close of Dr. Quayle's explanation, the resolution authorizing an opposing fight on the bill was passed unanimously.

The committee on place for the next convention reported in favor of Shelbyville, where the convention was organized in 1850. Consequently in 1925 the Illinois Disciples will celebrate their diamond jubilee at Shelbyville.

Several changes were necessary in the program for yesterday, as two ministers who were to have delivered sermons could not be present. Instead of the sermons by Dr. F. O. Fanning at the close of the morning session, President Gunn called on a number of the older ministers for brief addresses telling of their personal experiences in the church. Those who spoke briefly were Rev. Marion Stevenson of St. Louis, Rev. William Shaw of Chicago, Rev. S. S. Jones, Rev. Cannon of Milton and Dr. R. E. Hieronymus of Springfield, who is more than eighty years of age.

The afternoon session was devoted largely to miscellaneous addresses and talk by representatives of various interests, including the Near East Relief, and the book companies which have maintained booths at the convention. The main address was given by Rev. John R. Golden of Decatur, representative of the Christian church on the state board of the Anti-Saloon League.

Rev. Golden declared that the liquor interests have not yet given up their fight for the privilege of violating law, but that conditions are far better than before the 18th amendment was passed. He was of the opinion that conditions in the national capital are not as bad as they are painted, as a man who attempted to get liquor there, told him he worked hard the night and could not obtain a drop of anything strong to drink.

The liquor interests do not expect to repeal the 18th amendment but hope to make it helpless and ineffective by repealing the various state and federal enabling and enforcement laws now on the statute books. This is what the Anti-Saloon League is now fighting to prevent, and the ground regained can be held only by electing men to the legislature who are pledged to support the prohibition laws and measures now in effect.

MANY LOCAL PEOPLE HEAR FIGHT RETURNS

Given Round by Round by Journal Co., to Large Crowd Thru Use of "Speech Amplifier" Installed by J. C. Walsh Electric Co.

Residents of Jacksonville began gathering in front of the Journal office as early as 6:30 last night following an announcement that the returns of the Willis-Firpo bout in Jersey City would be given round for round, and by the time the preliminaries were over about fifteen hundred fight fans had assembled in the immediate vicinity of the office.

Previous fights have been announced by megaphone but thru the courtesy of the J. C. Walsh Electric & Radio Company of this city a "speech amplifier" was installed and the returns were read into a microphone by the Journal's official announcer who was located at the rear in a quiet part of the building. This method of announcing to large crowds is a distinct improvement over the old way and met with instant approval.

The preliminary activities in the squared circle at Jersey City were given to the waiting throng, as well as many other news bulletins that came in over the wire between rounds.

The Journal was on a direct Associated Press wire so that the people who were awaiting the returns got them but a few seconds following the actual happening.

An idea of the speed with which wire news handled in this manner reaches the public is conveyed in the incident covering the arrival of Loeb and Leopold at the penitentiary. Joliet prison was hooked up direct with the local wire. A "flash" came thru announcing their arrival, and simultaneously with the verbal announcement by the local A. P. operator, the announcer gave the information thru the "speech amplifier."

The prisoners arrived at the pen at 7:53 p. m., and the crowd in front of the Journal office got the information just ten seconds later. The "speech amplifier" used last night is owned by the Walsh Electric & Radio company and is so prepared that the actual installation is made in a few moments.

KENTUCKY PASTOR IN CONVENTION ADDRESS

Dr. E. L. Powell of Louisville Delivers Closing Speech of Disciples' Gathering—Tells of Church Controversies.

Rev. E. L. Powell, who for thirty-five years has been pastor of the largest Christian church in Louisville, Ky., delivered the closing address of the Illinois convention of Disciples of Christ here last night. The speaker discussed largely the denominational policy of the church, emphasizing the absolute independence of outside ecclesiastical domination which each local congregation maintains.

The address was heard by a fair-sized audience, many of the delegates having left earlier in the day. The outgoing president, Rev. John I. Gunn, was in charge of the meeting. Dr. Powell discussed a recent controversy which arose in the denomination concerning the authority of the United societies to dictate the faith and policy of churches on the foreign field. It was charged that some of these churches practiced open membership, omitting the ordinance of baptism where it was desired.

The speaker denied the right of the United societies or any other organization in the denomination to dictate the policies of the foreign churches in this matter. He stated that each congregation had the right to define its own conditions of membership or of any other church activity, and that no super-authority was present to say the local church nay.

The speaker mentioned the early history of the denomination, referring to the work of Barton W. Stone, who has the credit of establishing the local Christian church. Dr. Powell stated that his own first work in the ministry was in the church at Ursula, Ill., near Quincy, during his college days at Canton, Mo.

CAMERA COOTIES
Southampton, L. I., Sept. 11.—It takes all sorts of fancy debris to make a tasty dish of hash and the exact number of assorted nuts required to populate one so-called civilized world is bigger than the combined batting averages of Pop Anson and Ty Cobb.

No one probably ever will be able to unravel mystery of high powered business executive who can't give Morgan or Rockefeller more than three minutes of his time at the most, yet will stand for hours before drug store window watching pale, thin anemic demonstrate Dr. Bunkum's health suspenders.

Some of country's most inquisitive minds find themselves completely stymied trying to unearth one sound, presentable reason why people with obvious intelligence and normal pituitary glands will spend hours of their lives collecting autographs of visiting gold fish trainers and other headline hogs.

Another strata of national imbecility that warrants official observation is made up of gibbering beetles who carry away stone columns from historic graveyards as souvenirs and pilefer strands of hangman's noose to keep fashionable murder fresh in decorated brain cells.

But the three-star special in the bughouse sweepstakes, guaranteed to center in a demonical first by seven insane lengths or your straitjacketed back, is the amateur kodak fiend.

This incurable snapshot plague abounds in large and endless numbers at training camps of fighters and is invariably accompanied by an accomplice of the neither sex who takes turn about in posing with the thick-eared gladiators.

Wills, who is as easy to get along with as the family camera, has posed for a million camera cooties and in every guise from a Scandinavian squash to Abie's Irish Rose.

The current diet is furnished in two colors by Wills and Firpo. In the middle of a round, whether it be of drinks or right crosses, the fiend will lift his pulsating voice and plead, "Hold that pose just for a second, please!"

Firpo has been equally obliging, but less satisfactory. It's hard to get thrilling action picture of portly square wide open and ears pinned back.

Wills Victory Over Firpo Is Decisive

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Sept. 11 (AP).—Harry Wills battered his way to a smashing one-sided victory tonight over Luis Angel Firpo in a gruelling 12 round battle before a throng estimated at 75,000 in Boyle's Thirty Acres.

Dominating the fight from start to finish, with an exhibition of ring craft that completely spiked Firpo's heaviest gun, his famous right, Wills beat the giant Argentinian into decisive defeat with a bruising, relentless attack to the head and body.

Firpo was knocked down for a count of four in the second round, staggered in several others by lightning like thrusts to his jaw, and subjected to a succession of savage, weakening drives to the body. Shorn of his chief and only potent weapon, the Argentinian fought a losing battle all the way. His gameness carried him thru the terrific punishment his negro rival administered, but he had not the boxing skill, speed or versatility of attack to cope with the crafty, resourceful and relentless campaign of his opponent.

No official decision was rendered, as none is permitted under New Jersey ring laws, but there was no question of the outcome.

Firpo, in the opinion of some critics, barely held his own in one round, the third, while the big majority of newspaper critics gave every round to the big negro.

Jack Dempsey was in the crowd of notables that witnessed the battle and saw Wills stamp himself as the outstanding contender for a title match the negro has been seeking for three years, while at the same time, he eliminated the big Argentinian.

Charley McKenna of Greenwich Village outfit Miguel Ferrara, Argentine sparring partner of Firpo, in the first preliminary.

Carl Johnson and Joe Silvani, two light heavyweights battled to a draw, in the opinion of most critics in the second four round preliminary. Both took considerable punishment but were going strong at the finish. They are both from New York.

Bill Tate, negro sparring mate of Firpo made short work of John Casanova, another negro, in the third preliminary. Tate's 243 pounds which gave him a 50 pound advantage in weight seemed to discourage Casanova who went down for the count of ten from a short right uppercut, after two minutes of the first round had elapsed.

Despite disadvantages in weight and reach, Jim Maloney, of Boston, outpunched Joe Stoessel of New York former amateur heavyweight star in the fourth and last preliminary before the main event. Maloney floored his opponent for a count of six in the last round and had the New Yorker badly beaten. Maloney weighed 197 and Stoessel 213.

Firpo staggered Wills with his heavy right, first to the body and then to the jaw but the negro was unhurt. Firpo landed a right uppercut but the negro only smiled. Firpo missed a right and Wills rushed him across to the ropes with a panther-like leap.

They were fighting furiously at the bell.
ROUND TWO—Firpo landed four rights to the jaw as they met in the center of the ring. He staggered the negro with a body punch. Firpo was landing his right consistently to all parts of Wills' body and head. They clinched. Wills knocked Firpo down with a left to the jaw but he was up at the count of three, apparently unhurt. Firpo fell into a clinch when he got up. Firpo was wild with his right. Wills missed a right. They continued to clinch. Firpo landed his right solidly to Wills' head as the bell rang.

ROUND THREE—Firpo rushed out of his corner with a characteristic leap but Wills immediately fell into a clinch. They exchanged blows at close quarters. Wills tying up the Argentinian whenever possible.
Firpo landed to the head and body with his right and took a right to the body in exchange. Wills landed effectively to Firpo's body when the Argentinian attempted to hang on. Firpo landed a beautiful uppercut to Wills' jaw, but the negro countered with a barrage of body blows. Firpo missed a lunging right just as the bell sounded.

ROUND FOUR—They fell into a clinch at the bell. Firpo's right found Wills' body and the negro immediately clinched. The referee used his knee to pry the two apart. The referee warned Wills for holding on. Both landed pretty uppercuts. Firpo was wild with his right. Wills staggered Firpo with a right flush on the face, but the negro did not follow up his advantage. It was the best blow of the fight. Firpo uppercut with his right. Firpo missed a right and got a right uppercut to the jaw in return. They were in a clinch at the bell.

Both landed to the body. They clinched. They wrestled around the ring, pulling and hauling at each other. Firpo landed twice to the head. Wills was blocking beautifully. Firpo could not get set for a blow. Wills hammered Firpo's kidneys. Wills' right stung Firpo, the Argentinian countering with another right to the head in return. They were sparring for an opening at the bell.

ROUND SIX—They exchanged rights and lefts to the head. There was plenty of body punches at close quarters. Firpo landed weakly to Wills' head. The negro smiled as he blocked Firpo's leaps. Firpo rushed half way across the ring to evade one of Wills' rushes. They continued their wrestling tactics. Wills' right found Firpo's jaw again but the South American got in a sweet uppercut which sent Wills' head backward, just as the bell rang.

ROUND SEVEN—They fell into their usual clinch as they met in the center of the ring. Firpo danced away from Wills' right. The Argentinian's plunging rushes were missing. Wills doubled Firpo with a left to the body. They pulled and hauled each other around the ring, hitting with their free hands at any opening available. Firpo got in a right and left to the head which Wills could not block, but no damage was done. Wills jammed with his left and crossed with his right, staggering Firpo in his own corner. The negro was hitting harder than his opponent. A right to the jaw made Firpo groggy. Two heavy body blows followed but the bell stopped Wills from following up further.

ROUND EIGHT—Wills' left found Firpo's body and his right went to the jaw as they met in the center of the ring. Firpo jabbed weakly with his left but Wills blocked a right cross which followed. A straight right sent Firpo's head backward. The negro was boxing superbly. Wills landed effectively to the body in a clinch. Wills' punches were carrying more steam than his rival's. Firpo was short with a right uppercut. The negro landed twice to Firpo's body. They broke from a clinch as the bell rang.

ROUND NINE—The negro tied Firpo up when he started one of his rushing attacks. Firpo led with his right and fell into a clinch. They exchanged body blows at close quarters. The negro's reach was bothering Firpo. Wills stood off and peppered Firpo at long range, landing effectively six times without an absolute return. Firpo was going away as Wills' right struck his jaw. The negro was gaining confidence. Firpo led with his right but Wills cleverly blocked the blow and caught Firpo on the side of the head coming in. Firpo's right hit Wills hard on the head but the negro only smiled. The bell stopped the fight in the middle of a clinch.

ROUND TEN—They exchanged body blows. Firpo protested to the referee for hitting in the clinches. Wills' heavy right was finding Firpo's body consistently. Wills landed a one-two punch to Firpo's head and the Argentinian clinched. Wills landed to Firpo's body but took a stiff one in his wind in return. Firpo danced away from a right and then clinched. Firpo landed weakly to Wills' jaw and followed it with a right to the body which stung the negro. Wills took a beautiful right on the jaw just as the bell rang.

ROUND ELEVEN—Wills rushed to meet Firpo but the Argentinian clinched. Wills hooked his right to Firpo's jaw as the referee attempted to part them. Firpo landed his right to Wills' jaw and followed with a right to the body, but the blows lacked steam. There was much wrestling and hanging on by both principals. Firpo stung his right to Wills' jaw twice in rapid succession but the negro kept concentrating to Firpo's body which was pink from the heavy battery of blows which he had absorbed. Firpo was getting his right over better but also taking plenty of body punishing. They were tied tight at the bell.

ROUND TWELVE—They shook hands. They immediately clinched. Firpo hanging on desperately. Wills was opening up trying frantically to put over a finishing blow. He continued his relentless body attack. Firpo was hanging on savagely. Wills missed a right but landed two successive rights to the head a moment later. Firpo landed his right straight to Wills' face but the negro continued to smile. They continued their clinching and wrestling tactics. Firpo got the worst of the exchanges which followed. They were clinching at the bell.

DODGERS WIN IN ELEVENTH INNING

BROOKLYN, Sept. 11.—The Dodgers were forced to eleven innings to win the farewell game of the season from the Phillies today 8 to 7. The victory put the Brooklyn team within a half game of the Giants again.
The Phillies used eighteen players including five pitchers. Zach Wheat had batted safely in 24 successive games, until stopped today, an intentional pass in the eleventh preventing him from a try at his twenty fifth.

Heavyweights Who Battled For Chance To Meet Dempsey

Wills Firpo

Billy Evans SAYS

Is there such a thing as trying to make a major league club play too much baseball?
That may sound like a rather peculiar question. By it, I simply mean, is it possible to overdo the inside stuff?

In other words, try to plan the entire style of play for the team and individual, rather than let the player use a certain amount of initiative.
During the fog end of every major league pennant campaign I annually see certain happenings which make me feel that the strategy stuff can easily be overdone.

Every ball club cannot be made up entirely of heady players. There must be a certain amount of "ivory" in every diamond combination. Some are far from intellectual giants.

It is very possible to try to cram too much inside stuff into the heads of certain players. The moment you give them too much to think about, you cut down on their natural ability.

Several years back, a certain big league club that had been a disappointment, was holding down a second division berth without any hopes of getting out.

Only a few weeks of the season remained. The manager, peeved and mystified by the poor showing of certain players, decided to do some experimenting.

Calling his players together, he talked over the situation with them. Dwelled on the fact that the club as managed had failed. Wondered what might be the reason.

The manager, who had always been in supreme command, directing every move of his players, even as to the ball the batsman should hit and run on, told his players that during the remaining games a new system would be used.

He informed the players, that except when he had some particular play he wanted made, he would leave it up to his men as to the style of game that should be played.
In other words, he permitted the players to use their own initiative, instead of making mere mechanics.

In making use of the hit and run play, it was up to the batter to decide the ball he wanted to hit, and pass out the information to the runner, by a given signal.

If a player wanted to steal, it was up to him to get his break, and go when it seemed his chances were best for putting the theft over.

the game for every man, instead of letting the individual share the responsibility and profit thereby.
Base hits make runs and runs win ball games.

If a manager persists in believing that inside stuff wins more ball games than base hits, he is making a fatal mistake.
Too many clubs try to play too much inside baseball.

Market Report

By The Associated Press

HUGE EXPORT SALES
HOIST WHEAT MARKET

CHICAGO, Sept. 11.—Huge export sales said to total as much as 7,000,000 hoisted the wheat market today. Corn, oats and rye were also sharply advanced. All grain closed strong at virtually the day's top figures, wheat 3 1/2 to 5c net higher, December $1.32 1/2 @ 1 1/2; and May $1.38 1/2 to $1.38, corn 3c to 4 1/2c up at 1 1/2; 1 1/2 to 1 1/2c gain, and provisions varying from ten cent decline to a rise of 17c.

The Canadian government crop report was thought largely responsible for the unusual activity on the part of foreign buyers. The Canadian report also taking no account of damage by frost since Sept. 1, pointed to a greatly reduced yield compared with 1923 and was associated with an unexpected return in the Liverpool quotations.

European crop damage advices were also at hand, accompanied by news of unseasonable wet weather in Great Britain and elsewhere and of drastic measures abroad to conserve supplies. Notably in France and Poland. Despite reports of general rains in Argentina the volume of wheat buying here continued to broaden as the day approached an end. It was said the breakup of the Argentine drought had failed to prevent damage which would mean less than normal production. On the other hand reports of wet weather in Canada causing damage to wheat in shock as well as delay to harvesting and crop movement acted as a further stimulus to the rush here for the buying side of the market.

Wet weather and predictions of frost did much to enhance in the corn market the influence of the wheat strength.

Oats followed wheat and corn upgrades. Provisions, altho weak early were later responsive to the bulge in value of grain.

RURAL MAIL CARRIERS ASSIST IN CROP SURVEY

Rural mail carriers of this city are assisting in a crop acreage survey which is being carried on by the department of agriculture and assisted by the postal department. This survey is similar to the pig survey conducted a few months past. The carriers carry questionnaire cards to the farmers along their routes and upon these cards the farmers note facts which furnish the basis for determining the acreage in each crop grown in the United States.

FARM BUREAU NOTES

Meeting at Hopewell School—The meeting at Hopewell school Wednesday evening at which the farm bureau motion pictures were shown and the details of the T. B. testing were explained was attended by the men, women and children of the district. Many questions concerning the work were asked by those present and quite a number signed the application that evening. Practically every farmer in that district has now signed up for the test. This meeting and the one at Lake View Thursday evening were both arranged by Edgar Baylis, township chairman for 16-12.

Vaccination Demonstration—Dr. E. Riely of the Marshall-Putnam Farm Bureau, will give a demonstration on "How to Vaccinate Hogs," at David Stanfield's farm south of Murrayville Tuesday morning, Sept. 16. A demonstration of this sort is limited in attendance to those who wish to learn how to do the work. A farmer can vaccinate his own hogs although many do not care to do so.

The Use of the Catching Coop—The catching coop for culling was used at John Tomhawe's farm north of Jacksonville on Tuesday morning. Its use prevents the chickens from being frightened like they are when they are caught by hand, but it also results in the culling process going much slower. This coop will be loaned to any farm bureau member who cares to try it out.

Recent Limestone Orders—The latest shipments have been made to E. R. Hemmrough at the siding south of the city and Charles G. Middleton, at Markham. Both of these men will use this limestone as an aid in growing legumes.

3 Operations—15 years suffering with constipation—Kellogg's Bran restores health

Mr. Lancing's case is typical of thousands of others. He found permanent relief from constipation in Kellogg's Bran because it is ALL bran. Nothing but ALL bran can be 100 per cent effective. Read what he says:

Dear Sir:

I have been afflicted with constipation for the past 15 years, and during that time I have been in four different hospitals and submitted to five different operations that were the result of constipation. I was getting so bad that every meal I ate soured on my stomach. Two months ago I was advised to eat your Kellogg's Bran. I tried it, as I was trying everything I could hear of. From that day on I have never taken a physic. My stomach does not sour any more and my bowels move regularly morning and evening.

Yours sincerely,
Frank Lancing,
1506 Jeffries Ave., Marion, Ind.

For permanent relief, eat Kellogg's Bran regularly. Two tablespoons daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. It is guaranteed to bring results, or your grocer will return your money.

You will like the delicious nut-like flavor of Kellogg's Bran—so different from ordinary bran, which are unpalatable. Eat Kellogg's Bran with milk or cream. Sprinkle it over other cereals. Cook it with hot cereals. Try it in the recipes given on the package.

Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is served by leading hotels and clubs in individual packages. Made in Battle Creek. Sold by all grocers.

V. E. T. Smoker, City.

Dear Sir:

Answering your very interesting letter of August 25th, addressed to "Secretary Cigarmakers Union." I wish to say that on behalf of the Cigar Industry, employers and employees, we thank you for your kind interest and effective co-operation.

We are sure that you bespeak the feelings of the average smoker. The manufacturers listed below, and their cigarmakers, really wonder why it is that so many of the smoking public has allowed itself to be drawn toward outside cigars, knowing the composition of our own makes. I think you are quite right in suggesting the query: "why aren't Jacksonville cigars advertised individually, the brands made a by-word among smokers?"

a collection was taken for the teams participating. Morgan county's share was $29.35. This will be distributed to the players.

Meeting at Bethel School House—The farm bureau motion picture machine will be used to explain the T. B. campaign to the people in the vicinity of the Bethel school house at a meeting called for 7:30 p. m., Friday evening, Sept. 12th. Clyde Williams of Chapin has made the arrangements. A cordial invitation to the men, women and children is extended by those making the arrangements.

KILLING FROST NOT LIKELY BEFORE OCT. 10

Morgan county farmers need have little fear for their corn crop from killing frost before October 10, according to a statement issued by the Blue Valley Creamery Institute.

A study of weather reports for thirty years shows that there is little likelihood of a killing frost before that date, the statement continues. Killing frost was first observed here last year on October 21 but in 1920, the year of the bumper crop, no apparent damage to the corn was done before October 29.

In calling attention to these facts, the Institute issues a warning to farmers in this vicinity who still have bins of good corn suitable for seeding not to yield to the temptation to sell out at the high prices now offered for cash corn, but rather to save a plentiful supply for their new crop. The exceedingly late start and slow growth made by the corn crop this year gives grounds for the expectation that much corn will be caught by frosts this fall and rendered unfit for seed purposes. This applies particularly to the northern half of the corn belt.

See our new line of sample fall and winter coats on sale $9.98, $14.98, $19.75, values up to $40. The Emporium.

but this precaution is urged on all farmers who grow corn.

"We have no means of knowing when frosts may be expected this fall," the statement concludes, "but it is at least a wise precaution for every corn grower to hold on to any good seed corn he may have until assured of a new supply. The germinating qualities of good seed corn when kept over a second year, are generally very good, provided the ears are stored in a dry, cool place."

Appreciation Expressed By Union of Cigarmakers For the Interest Shown

Time was when this was done. We have allowed outside manufacturers to usurp our rightful position. The smoking public constantly changes in personnel. If we do not keep on advertising, the changing personnel of smokers are caught by the glittering ads of the outsiders and they soon forget the home fellows.

The reputation of a cigar or anything else cannot be sustained without advertising.

"Remember way back when" Pyatt's, Cassell's, Knollenberg's and Newman's brands were advertised extensively? Smokers had the names of their brands memorized, and it was an effort to have someone suggest to them the name of an outside cigar. They sustained the reputation of our cigars.

But, time changes. A new generation of smokers comes along. Between the two, so to speak, advertising, as it was then conducted, ceases, and the outsider took it up, and got the smokers' money. That is why we are now idle so much.

There are 12 manufacturers listed below. Smokers are welcome in their factories to see just how the cigars are made and what goes into them; and we venture the assertion that your conclusions will be duplicated by the average smoker; if he reasons and acts as you did.

From all that has been said it should be plain to smokers that 100 more busy men here is preferable to 100 more busy men in some other city. You had them here—you let them go. All we ask is to help them back by supporting the brands listed below.

Thanking you again, and hoping for your continued favorable support,

Sincerely yours,
(Sec.) Cigarmakers Union.
